
Multi-license software

The University has a multi-license for frequently used software products:

- Matlab
Charles University is the owner of the Total Academic Headcount (TAH) license for MATLAB, Simulink and additional products.
- Office 365
Charles University has the possibility to use the Office 365 services under a contract with Microsoft.
- Grammarly Premium
Charles University has the possibility to use the tools to check English spelling.
- Grapher a Surfer
Charles University has the possibility to use for geological mapping from Golden Software. Simply download the software from the manufacturer and use the mlmb.ruk.cuni.cz server as a license server
- COMSOL Multiphysics
Charles University is the owner of the network academic license of the modular simulation software COMSOL Multiphysics for numerical simulations of ordinary and partial differential equations.