
Electronic filing service

Telephone support

Support takes place during working hours. A comprehensive list of contacts is available directly in the electronic filing service available via a web browser at Contacts of Support .

Procedures, instructions

Central documentation is available directly in the electronic filing service available via a web browser at Documentation . Local methodologies and corresponding manuals are administered by local coordinators of faculties and parts of Charles University.

Other important information

Conditions for working in the electronic filing service

For proper work, it is necessary to have a functional authenticated password to log into the account of the Central Authentication Service of Charles University (CAS) including a completed email account.

Log into CAS here .