
Educational portal

The system is accessible to all staff and students of Charles University, to whom it mediates the offer of further education programmes.

The administration, operation and development of the system is ensured by the Research, Projects and Mobility Management.

More information about the operation of and access to the educational portal can be found on the website of the Centre for Lifelong Learning of Charles University.

Access

<https://vzdelavani.is.cuni.cz>