

---

Enterprise Architecture and Business Analytics Department

---

Leader: Ing. Jakub Malina

Scope of work:

- creates and maintains a structured overview of business needs and a description of business processes of the university, in the level of detail needed for the development of information systems, based on communication with faculties and units of the university
- mediates cooperation of IT analysts with professional departments of the university,
- provides training of members of analytical groups in analytical skills,
- cooperates with IT analysts within the ICT, at faculties and other parts of the university in the design of how to solve user requirements,
- participates in the creation of test scenarios for testing information systems and functional tests of information systems.