

---

Students of Prague Universities, 1882–1945

---

This application was developed in collaboration with the Institute of History of the Charles University and the Archive of the Charles University. Its aim is to make accessible digitalised documents pertaining to students of Prague universities in 1882–1945, such as registries of doctorates, rigorosum protocols, lists of students in particular courses, and examination protocols from the Czech and the German university in Prague. This application is intended to be used by the general public.

Access

Accessing the application and additional information about the project